At the Trial de Orense, the fifth round of the Spanish series

ADAM RAGA (GAS GAS) ADDS A NEW PODIUM FINISH

Entrimo (Orense), 5 October 2003.- Adam Raga (GAS GAS) has taken second place in the fifth and penultimate round of the Spanish Trial Championship, held today at Entrimo, Ourense (Spain).

The rider from Uldecona has thus kept his particular climb in the overall championship standings, and is fifth now, with 45 points, and with possibilities to climb on the final rostrum at the last round of the series, to be held at Navarcles, Barcelona on Sunday 26 October.

On his part, the second GAS GAS rider, Marc Colomer, was sixth, while Jordi Pascuet, another member of the "Jordi Tarrés-GAS GAS" team, finished in the ninth place and is now fourth in the overall standings. The youngest man in the team, Jeroni Fajardo, was disqualified after a protest for a penalty that he considered unfair in the second section of the first lap.
